Mrs. Gill's Excursion.

Much interest is felt in an excursion to be given by Mrs. Gill to the Jamestown Exposition on Tuesday, June 25th. Her party will go from Richmond to the Exposition grounds on the new steamer Savona, which offers many transportation advantages and unusual comforts and conveniences. It will leave the Richmond wharf at 4 P. M. on Tuesday and reach the landing point at the exposition the next morning. All who desire to go can remain on board at night during their stay. A large party will make the trip.

Glass—Franklin.

A marriage of much interest here will take place in Roanoke on Wednesday, the 19th, at high noon, in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Marie Franklin, No. 116 Elm Avenue, Southwest, when her daughter, Alice Frances, will be united in matrimony to Mr. Corbin Decatur Glass, of that city.

On account of a recent bereavement in the family of Mr. Glass, the marriage will be an exceedingly quiet affair. The ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Father J. W. Lynch, pastor of St. Andrew's Catholic Church, will be witnessed by only immediate relatives and a few friends of both families.

Miss Katherine Doyle, of Lynchburg, as maid of honor, will be the bride's only attendant. Mr. Oscar W. Huddleston will serve as best man.

Miss Franklin is widely and well connected throughout the State, having a number of relatives in this city. She has visited here on several occasions, and with her beauty, vivacity and charming personality, won a host of friends, who wish her much happiness. Mr. Glass is connected with the Norfolk and Western Railway Company in an official capacity, and is popular in business and social circles.

AT ALL SODA FOUNTAINS

INSIST!!!

When you step up to a fountain or into a place where bottled drinks are sold tell the man you want Coca-Cola. Close your ears to the "just as good" argument because there is nothing just as good as Coca-Cola. INSIST. You have asked for Coca-Cola because you are convinced that is what you want—don't let a smooth-tongued salesman rule your judgement. If the man insists go to a place where they give their customers what they ask for. Imitations are made to deceive you, not to please you.

THE REASON—Coca-Cola not only quenches thirst and pleases the palate but it relieves fatigue, and is the only beverage that has vim and go to it.
